

English

Fiction:

Jack and the Beanstalk and alternative versions– Jack and the Baked Beans, Jim and the Beanstalk

The Enormous Turnip

The BFG

Non-fiction:

Growing beans– writing instructions for bean and turnip recipes

Poetry- Autumn poems linked to seasonal changes

Start point– A giant's rucksack has been found on the school doorstep!

End point– A harvest café where we create a wishing tree

Visits-/ visitors– Visit Parklands Farm

How big is big?

Autumn 1

2018

Science–

- What different plants need to survive– investigate the conditions for growth
- Observe seasonal changes

Forest School sessions:

- Identifying plants in our school grounds through their leaves and seeds

Computing

- E-safety
- Purple Mash– All About Me, linked to PSHE

Maths cross curricular links:

- Measuring and ordering giant footprints
- Measuring the circumference of trees

RE

Year 1– Special People: what makes me special? Who is special to me?

Year 2– Special Places: our homes and our village

PSHE

- Me and my family– drawing family trees
- The Enormous Crocodile– kindness and working together
- Healthy eating– making healthy recipes

Art

- Observational drawings of autumn vegetables and leaves from our school grounds
- Observational drawings of farm machinery
- Developing shading skills

Design and Technology

- Designing and preparing food
- Cutting skills, measuring and grating
- Hygiene when cooking
- Healthy lifestyles

