

English

Fiction:

A House in the Woods– Inga Moore

Alternative versions of Hansel and Gretel

Non-fiction:

Home by Carson Ellis

Descriptions of unusual homes across the world, including eco homes

Following in instructions to build Lego homes

Poetry- Autumn poems linked to seasonal changes

Start point– Building a whole school model of

Galleywood from junk modelling

End point– Enterprise project for CHES

Visits-/ visitors– Builders, plumbers, electricians

Home Sweet Home

Autumn 1 2019

Science–

- What different plants need to survive– investigate the conditions for growth
- Materials and their properties

Forest School sessions:

- Animal homes– what evidence of animal homes can we find in our school grounds? Build homes to encourage animals e.g. hedgehog houses
- Den building challenges
- Create a tree trail around our school grounds
- Observe seasonal changes

Maths cross curricular links:

- Measuring to the nearest centimetre
- Identifying 2D and 3D shapes

Computing

- E-safety
- Purple Mash– All About Me, linked to PSHE

RE

Year 1– Special People: what makes me special? Who is special to me?

Year 2– Special Places: our homes and our village

Art

- Sketching homes and buildings– different lines and shades
- Evaluating the work of L S Lowry

Geography

- Creating maps of our school and our local area
- How homes vary across the world and why

PSHE

- What does it mean to belong? What makes us feel at home?
- Kindness
- Raising money for the homeless shelter

Design and Technology

- Learning a range of joining techniques to create models of houses

